

Ideas to Increase Engagement!

- Dress Down Day: Donate X amount of dollars or bring in a certain number of food items and you may wear casual attire
- Potluck Day: Bring in a dish for lunch! In order to gain entrance, you must bring a certain number of food items or pay an admission fee
- Food Theme Day: Challenge co-workers to bring in as many different food items as possible in a certain category. For example, food geared towards people with diabetes, or food for children in a particular age group. Whoever has the most different types of food within the category wins a prize
- Prize/Reward: Have a prize for all employees who participate if your company wins their category or overall event- maybe a company t-shirt for all staff? Give a reward to staff who donate more than 20 cans or $100
- Totals: Display weekly or daily totals in high-traffic areas; announce totals using email or newsletter to keep people up to date and involved
- Friendly Competition: Conduct non-monetary waging and/or email wars between law firms and/or firm sections
- Client solicitations: Share your local food bank story and ask for donations via Facebook, LinkedIn, email and or in person
- Bake sales
- Silent Auction: Ask staff to make item donations then auctioning them off over a period of time

- Peanut Butter and Jelly, Pasta and Sauce and or Pizza Party days
- Gift Card Raffles
- Ice Cream Social
- Jeans Friday: make a donation to wear jeans
- Chili Cook-Off Event
- Pie Throw: let the winner get to pie someone in the face or buy their way out of it
- 50/50 Raffle
- Guess the Number of Items in the Jar
- Casino Night
- Family and Friends Neighborhood Food Drives
- Set up outside a local grocery store to collect donations
- Vote: Donate to vote on items like what special flavor of tea employees would like in the break room.
